Re: United States v. Eugene Austin
Ind. # 23 Cr. 508 (PKC)

Dear Judge Castel:

On Thursday, February 6, 2025, Your Honor appointed me as additional CJA counsel for Mr. Austin for the purpose of sentencing that is scheduled for February 20, 2025. Since that appointment, I have worked quickly to get up to speed. I have spoken extensively with Mr. Austin's present attorneys, reviewed several documents related to Mr. Austin's sentencing, communicated with the government, as well as some of Mr. Austin's family members. Also, I appeared at the MDC to formally meet and visit with Mr. Austin for several hours. Although our attorney-client discussions were fruitful, there are additional aspects of Mr. Austin's upcoming sentencing that require more discussion between us, and more understanding on my part.

I am fully aware of the Courts intention that Mr. Austin's sentencing occur on February 20, and its denial of a past request for an adjournment. However, I must respectfully request a thirty-day adjournment, so I have the necessary time to fully apprise myself of issues relating to Mr. Austin's sentencing, his attorney-client relationships, and to provide effective assistance and advice of counsel.

Your consideration is appreciated.

Very Truly Yours,

SULLIVAN|BRILL, LLP
